

HOW TO VOTE

Mark your ballot RIGHT when you vote at the State and County election this day.

There has been much misinformation about how to vote.

The law is clear:

Put a CROSS in the space over the general ticket you want to vote.

When you want to vote for some candidate on the opposite ticket, place a cross in the space opposite his name.

But this is highly important to remember—

IN VOTING FOR LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES PUT A CROSS OPPOSITE THE NAME OF EACH CANDIDATE FOR WHOM YOU WISH TO VOTE—on other tickets.

Here this is noted:

If you wish to vote the Democratic ticket, mark it as at the top of the ballot.

If you wish to vote for certain Republicans candidates mark their names.

If you wish to vote for some Democratic and some Republican legislators MARK EACH ONE.

IT IS DIFFICULT

To find the majority of the people most of the time. The voice of the people is a very good opinion.

TRACY GIVES ADVICE

Should you be an individual who complains about the poor state of workmanship obtained in your garage, and the high prices charged in the high cost of repairs, get some good oil, grease and paint at the Columbus Filling Station and spend twenty minutes fitting grease cups, drain crank case, polish up the chassis, etc., and you will save some fine looking car that runs like a race car down the street.

To the Mothers of New Mexico:

FROM FLANDREY FIELD,
the "Sisterhood" Ranch.

How are you going to vote, Mother? What have you done so far? Will the legacy of millions and millions be lost? When the white world looks at you? What have you done, mother? How many? Millions of millions, I ask of you?

Are you going to stand with me, Mother? As I have stood strong for you? When I have had life for all mankind?

In the woods of green Belmont? When you mark your ballot, Mother? Mother of Mine, what will you do?

I stand for America—yes, Mother. That is exactly true. But I fought to make the whole world free.

In the wood of green Belmont. Do you want it fought over? Well, I'm for you.

But, Mother, pray hard on Nov. 2.

Pray for the world that God loves, Mother.

And as I know you will do: Pray for my gallant chief, Mother. He was my wonderful tool.

Pray for the Peace which he signed for us.

Mother of Mine, on Nov. 2.

Oh, I know you will vote right, Mother.

In the booth on November 2—

You'll vote as I fought for the world, Mother.

That's what I know you'll do.

Vote that my flag shall never retreat.

Vote for the League where the nations meet.

Hail to the early heroes, Mother.

They are so deaf and blind—

Hail to the voice of God, Mother,

Standing for all mankind!

Mother of Mine, beloved and true,

Vote with your boy on Nov. 2.

PLEASE GOD IT WILL NOT FAIL.

Cecil Double Gold Star Mother Who Contributed to Our Fight.

There came into Democratic National Headquarters the other day a letter that speaks far more than all the millions of words uttered by hair-splitting sophists in opposition to the League of Nations.

The letter and the modest contribution accompanying it were entirely unnoticed. In fact, its writer didn't know the address of Democratic Headquarters, for she sent her communication in care of a New York newspaper.

She merely wanted to do her small part toward protecting mothers against what she uncomplainingly but yet with a grief only a mother can appreciate has suffered. Of four young promising, devoted sons she sent to war in defense of her country, two were killed in battle, and a third is still missing, perhaps for life.

Read her letter:

Elizabeth, New Jersey,
George White, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, New York City—Dear Sir: Please accept the enclosed small contribution to the fund for dissemination of the truth about the League of Nations. It is literally a "widow's mite," but it comes from a mother who sent four greatly needed sons to the world war. Two of these sons were killed, a third was ill in France for five months due to gassing in action, and is still clasped as "mild" and a fourth risked his precious life in the air. When an honest and concerted effort is being made by the nations of the earth to save, if possible, future mothers and sons from three such evils, it is hard to realize there are those who oppose such an effort. I feel sure that among those who paid for the war, there can be but one opinion, and that is to try the League of Nations, even if it is not perfect. It is the best that has been proposed, and all objections being weighed, is manifestly the most feasible. PLEASE GOD IT WILL NOT FAIL.

Mrs. Edward Crawford Division.

Will all those—though they didn't give two sons—whose hearts echo this good mother's cry do as she has done. Help before it may be too late!

THIS WILL ANTHONIE MANY COLUMBUS PEOPLE

The quick action of simple witch-hazel, camphor, hydrosol, etc., as mixed with Lovage, eye wash, will invigorate Columbus people. One girl with weak, strained eyes was at once helped by a single application. Her mother could hardly see or read because of eye pain. In one week she has been benefited. We recommend a small bottle of Lovage to help ANY CASE of weak or strained or inflamed eyes. Alkaloids are eye safe free. Columbus Drug Company.
